

Sanctity of Human Life Sunday (SOHLS)

Since 1983, Americans have observed

Sanctity of Human Life Sunday (SOHLS)

& Sanctity of Human Life Month

as a day/month to celebrate the intrinsic value of all human life.

Sanctity of Human Life Sunday is held on the Sunday in January that falls closest to the day on which the Roe v. Wade and Doe v. Bolton decisions were handed down by the U.S. Supreme Court on January 22, 1973.

This important day also provides an opportunity for pregnancy centers to share about the work they do to bring life-affirming resources to their communities and to empower women and men to choose life for their unborn children.
